

Paige Tackett Recognized as “Outstanding Young Lawyer” by Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

April 29, 2022

Paige Tackett, a senior associate in the Dallas office of Zelle, has been recognized as “Outstanding Young Lawyer” for 2022 by the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (“DAYL”). She was honored at the Dallas Bar Association’s Law Day Luncheon on April 29, 2022.

Paige, who handles residential and commercial insurance coverage claims and litigation in her role as an attorney at Zelle, has been active in DAYL for more than a decade. She began her service in the organization as a co-chair of the Membership Committee in 2012, and still serves in that role. She was a member of the 2013 DAYL Leadership Class, where she was instrumental in the creation of the DAYL Bolton Ball, a black-tie gala which raises money annually for the DAYL Foundation.

Paige has served on the board of the DAYL, and currently serves on the board of Dallas Women Lawyers Association, where she has been instrumental in the success of the Women’s Mentoring Circles program and the Leadership Class, a leadership training program for women law students. She has also served as a student mentor for the Irma Rangel Young Women’s Leadership School and is in her eighth year of active service for the Junior League of Dallas. She also serves as co-chair of the Alumnae Advisory Committee for the Texas Beta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi at Southern Methodist University, which recently won the University’s 2022 Chapter of the Year Award.

Paige has been named a Super Lawyer every year since 2018. She was also named to D Magazine’s Best 40 Under 40 in 2020 and 2021.
