EDUCATION

- University of Minnesota Law School, J.D., 2016

Akira's practice focuses on insurance coverage and defense, commercial and business litigation, and reinsurance disputes.

She represents global insurance companies in jurisdictions around the world, including the U.S., Latin America, and Europe, in property coverage, liability insurance, business interruption, claims handling, insurance bad faith allegations, statutory violation allegations, fraudulent claims, and other matters. From storm damage to cyber breaches to Covid-19 claims and litigation, Akira counsels clients from the moment a dispute arises until the matter is resolved, be it through mediation or by securing a favorable decision in court.

Prior to joining Zelle, Akira was a law clerk for the Honorable Patrick D. Robben, Hennepin County District Court. Before developing an interest for litigation, Akira worked in the healthcare industry, primarily working with over a dozen pharmaceutical and biotechnology corporations to conduct national and international clinical studies. She later became an educator and now continues advocating for community-building initiatives throughout the Twin Cities.

Akira is actively engaged in various community initiatives including:

- Collective Power for Reproductive Justice, board member
- Teach for America Alumni Group, Twin Cities and Greater Tulsa member
- Feed My Starving Children, volunteer
