Michael represents many of the world's largest insurance companies in all aspects of civil litigation. His practice focuses on property, inland marine, and construction insurance coverage. As a former law clerk, Michael enjoys the intricacies of civil procedure and motion practice. And as a former English teacher, Michael excels in analyzing coverage for unique, complex issues.

Michael served as a law clerk for the Honorable Hal R. Ray, Jr., Federal Magistrate Judge for Wichita Falls in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Obtained summary judgment in federal court on million-dollar contingent business interruption claim arising out of Hurricane Harvey.

Aided clients in having multiple entries of default and default judgment set aside.

Obtained summary judgment in federal court, later affirmed on appeal to the Fifth Circuit, concerning application of policy exclusion for lack of storm-created opening.

Successfully argued numerous discovery motions and motions to dismiss (including dismissal of entire case on mandatory forum selection clause).
