Katharina represents many of the world's largest insurers in (re)insurance coverage, litigation, and dispute resolution, as well as complex commercial litigation and insurance defense. Her practice extends globally and covers multiple industries.

In addition to her practice in the U.S., she is an English solicitor, and fully qualified German lawyer.

Katharina began her career in the London insurance market, advising insurers and reinsurers in coverage, liability defense, and subrogation matters, as well as international arbitrations and mediations originating in common law and civil law jurisdictions, often involving cross-border elements.

Prior to joining Zelle, Katharina was a law clerk for the Honorable William G. Young at the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

Katharina is a native German speaker.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERSGeneral Liability Coverage and Defense
