Qianwei has handled a wide variety of litigation matters, with an emphasis on representing consumers and opt-out claimants in antitrust cartel and monopolization cases. Her antitrust experience covers a wide array of industries such as technology, automotive, transportation, energy, and pharmaceutical. Qianwei has played a primary role in all critical stages of litigation in some of the nation's largest antitrust cases. She routinely works with economic and industry experts on damages and pass-on issues.

Qianwei also has expertise in assessing and pursuing antitrust claims with international components and has collaborated with co-counsel in Canada, China and Europe to obtain recovery for multinational corporations. Her international background and training give her the broad scope and a sophisticated mix of skills necessary to navigate the unique legal and practical challenges that arise in cross-border antitrust and complex commercial disputes.

In addition to her antitrust practice, Qianwei specializes in complex commercial litigation and insurance class action defense. She also has experience providing counseling in data privacy matters. Qianwei is a past chair of the California Lawyers Association Antitrust and Unfair Competition Law Section (f/k/a "Antitrust, UCL and Privacy Section").
