Anna Kuhlman is an associate in Zelles Dallas office. Anna is licensed to practice in the State of Texas, where she represents clients in first-party property insurance disputes. Specifically, her practice focuses on legal research and in-depth analysis of simple to complex coverage issues, breach of contract claims, bad faith causes of action, and Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act (DTPA) violations.

Anna received her J.D. from Southern Methodist University in 2026. Before joining the firm as an associate, she spent two summers as a summer associate at Zelle. While in law school, she served as a member of SMUs Hunter Legal Center for Victims of Crimes Against Women and as an Associate Managing Editor for SMUs International Law Review Association.
