Alec is a senior associate in Zelles Philadelphia office, where he represents insurance carriers in complex coverage disputes in both state and federal courts. Alecs practice is devoted to advising and representing insurers before and throughout litigation in coverage disputes, bad faith litigation, and other extra-contractual matters.

Prior to joining Zelle, Alec was an associate at an AmLaw 200 firm, where he gained significant insurance coverage experience. His practice included representing insurers in first-party property litigation, conducting examinations under oath, preparing coverage opinions and position letters, providing strategic guidance during the claim-handling process, and managing SIU investigations

During law school, Alec clerked for the Honorable Jack A. Panella of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania and served as the Bluebook Editor of the Widener Law Review.
