

Zahid Authors Chapter for the AAI's International Handbook on Private Enforcement of Competition Law

December 21, 2010

Zelle Hofmann attorney Judith Zahid authored a chapter entitled "Pre-claim Activities," published in the American Antitrust Institute's International Handbook on Private Enforcement of Competition Law (Edward Elgar Publishing). This chapter describes how private antitrust litigation typically begins, including client contact and retention, pre-filing investigation, and strategic considerations that typically are considered in determining the specific claims to file, and equally importantly, where to file them.
