

Zelle Hofmann's San Francisco Office Welcomes Visiting Chinese Government Delegation

January 15, 2011

On January 11, 2011, Zelle Hofmann's San Francisco office, in conjunction with Upwardly Global, welcomed a delegation from China, consisting of 22 executive government officials from the Central Government and different provinces who are involved in making government information available online, and in working with foreign experts. Upwardly Global is an award-winning nonprofit organization bringing highly qualified immigrants and highly progressive employers together. In 2010, Zelle Hofmann and Upwardly Global formed a joint initiative to improve immigrant inclusion in the workplace while further nurturing a culture of diversity at the firm.
