

Steven Badger Profiled in the Dallas Business Journal Regarding His Role in the Historic $1.2 Billion 9/11 Subrogation Settlement

September 20, 2011

Zelle Hofmann Partner Steven Badger was profiled in an article entitled "Dallas attorney had inside view of 9/11 records," published in the September 9-15 issue of the Dallas Business Journal. The article discusses the pivotal role Steve, who served on the Property Damage Plaintiffs' Executive Committee, played in negotiating the $1.2 billion settlement resolving claims brought by several commercial property insurers who insured the World Trade Center Complex and its various tenants against airlines, airline security companies, and others alleged to be responsible for the 9/11 terrorist attack. It is reported to be the largest subrogation recovery ever obtained by the property insurance industry.

To view the complete Dallas Business Journal article, please click here.

Related link:

- Zelle Hofmann Concludes Historic \$1.2 Billion 9/11 Subrogation Settlement