December 21, 2011

Zelle Hofmann Partner Christopher Micheletti has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Legal Aid Society–Employment Law Center.

About the LAS–ELC

The Legal Aid Society–Employment Law Center is a nonprofit, legal services organization assisting California's low-income working families for more than 90 years. The LAS–ELC promotes the stability of low-income and disadvantaged workers and their families by addressing issues that affect their ability to achieve self-sufficiency. Using the law as a tool, the LAS–ELC helps workers attain financial security by preserving their employment opportunities. For additional information about the LAS–ELC, please click here.
