

Wm. Gerald McElroy, Jr. Elected as Fellow of the American Bar Foundation

October 23, 2012

Zelle Hofmann Partner Wm. Gerald McElroy, Jr. has been elected as a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, the nation's leading research institute for the empirical study of law.

The Fellows of the American Bar Foundation is an honorary organization of lawyers, judges, law faculty, and legal scholars who have been elected by their peers to become members of The Fellows because of their outstanding achievements in the legal profession. The Fellows support the research work of the American Bar Foundation through their annual contributions and sponsor seminars and events of direct relevance to leaders of the legal profession.

An independent, nonprofit organization for more than fifty years, the American Bar Foundation seeks to advance the understanding and improvement of law through research projects of unmatched scale and quality on the most pressing issues facing the legal system in the United States and the world.
