

José Umbert Elected to Board of Directors of California-Spain Chamber of Commerce

December 12, 2012

Zelle Hofmann Partner José Umbert has been elected to the Board of Directors of the California-Spain Chamber of Commerce, a nonprofit organization that promotes relationships between businesses and individuals in California and Spain. The programs of the California-Spain Chamber deal with hot topics and relevant interest in areas of business, technology and leadership with specific industry focus: Technology, CleanTech, Venture Capital and International Trade, among others, with the goal of expanding to cover new areas as needs arise. Umbert received Bachelor of Arts degrees in Business Administration and Law in Madrid, and is licensed to practice law in both California and Spain.