

Zelle Hofmann Named “Antitrust Litigation Law Firm of the Year in California” by International Global Law Experts

June 30, 2014

Following an annual study conducted by Global Law Experts (“GLE”), Zelle Hofmann has been named the 2014 “Antitrust Litigation Law Firm of the Year in California.” The International Global Law Experts Awards recognizes one law firm in each state that provides exceptional legal services in key practice areas.

The shortlisted firms honored by GLE in 2014 were judged on client testimonials, key cases from the past 12 months, legal rankings, overall reputation, publication contributions, speaking engagements and the performance and standing of the firm’s individual lawyers. In addition, the award is based on GLE’s review of more than 45,000 questionnaire responses from business directors, in-house legal counsel, independent law firms, high net-worth individuals and bar associations, among others.

GLE is an online resource for locating specialist legal advisers for the services required by businesses, investors and individuals. It profiles the leading partners and law firms across key practice areas in more than 110 countries.
