

The Legal 500 Ranks Zelle Hofmann Among Top Civil Litigation/Class Action Law Firms for the Seventh Consecutive Year

June 8, 2015

For the seventh consecutive year, The Legal 500, the world's largest legal referral guide, has ranked Zelle Hofmann as one of the top civil litigation/class action firms in the United States.

The Legal 500 notes, "A 'premier firm' for antitrust litigation, Zelle Hofmann Voelbel & Mason LLP provides an 'excellent level of service' for opt-out plaintiffs and classes. The firm continues to be involved in large antitrust cases, with a particular emphasis on the electronics industry, including the LCD and lithium-ion batteries cartels. In the In re Cathode Ray Tubes (CRT) Antitrust Litigation, the 'especially bright' Christopher Micheletti and the 'thoughtful' Judith Zahid represented consumers and businesses affected by price-fixing agreements between various electronics manufacturers, including Samsung, Panasonic and Hitachi. Recent work also includes acting as counsel for plaintiffs in the class action against defendant manufacturers of cast-iron soil pipes. The firm continues to work on numerous cases in the In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation before the US District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, opposing defendants' motions to dismiss plaintiffs' claims in various of the cases."
