

Zelle Hofmann Voelbel & Mason Announces Name Change to Zelle LLP

January 5, 2016

Zelle Hofmann Voelbel & Mason LLP is pleased to announce the change of the firm name to Zelle LLP effective January 1, 2016. The name change reflects the widespread and shorthand use of the firm's shorter name throughout the legal field and by clients.

"The partners of the firm agree that using the 'Zelle' name captures our firm's heritage and consolidates our brand under a name that is synonymous with integrity and client service," said Dan Millea, a member of the firm's Executive Committee. "Larry Zelle founded our firm in 1988 and created a culture focused on thinking creatively and delivering excellent legal service to our clients. We cherish these values and feel they are even more relevant today. Our clients and the business community already refer to us as 'Zelle' and we are confident that one name will help us strengthen our national and international identity."

Within the last year, Zelle's growth has accelerated with new offices opened in New York and Philadelphia, an expanded Boston office, and the launch of Zelle International in London. The firm is poised to see further growth and build on its history of representing clients in their most challenging business disputes in venues across the U.S. and around the world.
