

The Legal 500 Ranks Zelle Among Top Civil Litigation/Class Action Law Firms for the Eighth Consecutive Year

July 11, 2016

For the eighth consecutive year, The Legal 500, the world's largest legal referral guide, has ranked Zelle as one of the top civil litigation/class action firms in the United States.

The Legal 500 singles out Zelle for "its 'unusually diversified client base', which ranges from multinationals to consumers, and 'has an excellent antitrust practice, particularly on the plaintiff side'. The 'dynamic group of litigators' in the firm's San Francisco office are involved in some of the most high-profile cases, including the automotive parts litigation, where the team serves on an end-payor plaintiff leadership committee that is assisting co-lead counsel in the class action that followed from the DOJ's cartel investigation into the industry. Additional class action highlights span airline travel, packaged seafood, and debit and credit cards. Christopher Micheletti and Judith Zahid, who is 'able to bring people together on both sides of a case to get things done', are names to note.
