

Steven Badger Interviewed on Unauthorized Practice of Public Adjusting

May 2, 2017

Steven Badger, a partner in the Dallas office of Zelle, was interviewed by Adjusters International for a podcast titled “The Unauthorized Practice of Public Adjusting.”

The unlicensed practice of public adjusting (UPPA) by contractors and other unlicensed individuals is a vehicle for consumer fraud that preys on some of the most vulnerable elements of our society, particularly those recently affected by natural disasters. Fighting UPPA brings together the insurance and public adjusting communities to work cooperatively in finding a solution to this common problem. Badger, along with other experts, discuss this timely issue – what it is, who is affected, and what can be done to stop it.
