

Zelle Announces Call for Applications for 2021 Diversity in Law Scholarship

March 29, 2021

Zelle is pleased to announce the firm's Diversity in Law Scholarship will be offered again in 2021. The keystone of the firm's Diversity Outreach Plan, the Diversity in Law Scholarship was created for law students who either (1) are a member of a population or group whose background and perspectives are historically underrepresented in the private practice of law; or (2) demonstrate a long-standing commitment to diversity that will be furthered by award of the scholarship.

The Scholarship awards the selected recipient a total of $15,000.00 to be applied towards the selected recipient's law school tuition, fees, and text books, with one half of the scholarship paid for the student's second year of law school and one half of the scholarship paid for the student's third year of law school subject to the following: To receive the second installment of the scholarship, the recipient must maintain at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA (or its equivalent) through the student's second year of law school.

The Scholarship recipient will be offered and is encouraged to accept a paid summer clerkship at one of the firm's offices for the summer following the student's first year of law school. The specific location of the clerkship will be decided by the firm in consultation with the recipient and will be based upon both the recipient's interest and the firm's need. Zelle LLP reserves the right to offer the clerkship on a remote basis only.

Application submissions closed on March 29, 2021.

For questions pertaining to the firm's Diversity in Law Scholarship, please feel free to contact the Diversity Committee at diversity@zellelaw.com. To learn more about Zelle's commitment to diversity, please click here.