

Heather Rankie Appointed Co-Chair of the ABA Antitrust Section's Competition Torts Committee

September 2, 2021

Heather Rankie, counsel in Zelle's Oakland office and the firm's Antitrust Group, has been appointed to serve as Co-Chair of the ABA Antitrust Section Competition Torts Committee. Her term is effective September 1, 2021.

Heather served as Vice Chair of the American Bar Association Antitrust Section Competition Torts Committee from 2019–2021. She is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Bar Association of San Francisco Antitrust and Business Regulation Section.

The Competition Torts Committee focuses on competition law inside and outside the United States beyond the traditional antitrust statutes, and strives to provide competition lawyers everywhere with a more complete toolkit to better serve their clients.
