

Bryant Green Accepted as a 2023 Emerging Leader for the Fifth Annual Emerging Leaders Conference

December 15, 2022

Bryant Green, a senior associate in Zelle's Washington, DC office, has been selected for the American Property Casualty Insurance Association (APCIA) Emerging Leaders Conference, which will be held February 5-7 in Charleston, SC. Bryant earned the selection following a nomination by Zelle colleagues.

The Emerging Leaders Conference, hosted by APCIA, the Insurance Careers Movement and AM Best, is a vibrant event held in conjunction with Insurance Careers Month. The event provides insights to executive thought leadership and unique networking opportunities across job functions as well as a focus on professional and personal development. Conference organizers will also recognize exceptional leadership, outstanding impact on diversity, equity, and inclusion, innovative resiliency work, business transformation, and other extraordinary contributions by select Emerging Leaders during the Emerging Leaders Conference Awards Presentation. Awards are drawn from the stellar Emerging Leaders nominations.
