

Zelle LLP Expands International Insurance Practice

October 2, 2023

Zelle LLP is pleased to announce the expansion of its international insurance coverage capabilities with the addition of Olu Dansu to the firm's London office.

Olu, a former partner at DAC Beachcroft in London, brings several years of experience advising some of the world's largest insurers on claims spanning multiple industries, including construction, manufacturing, processing, and retail.

Olu's practice focuses on high value property damage, construction and product liability claims as well as pursuing subrogated recovery actions. He advises on all aspects of policy coverage, including potentially fraudulent claims. Olu also regularly advises on foreign claims involving disputes arising outside the jurisdiction, particularly in Africa.

Olu joins Zelle's London team of attorneys assisting clients in all aspects of the insurance claims process, including disputes involving coverage, adjustment, appraisal, arbitration, and litigation.

Zelle LLP, with nine offices based in the United States in addition to London, represents clients in their most challenging insurance-related disputes, antitrust/competition and other complex business litigation in venues across the United States and around the world.
