

Zelle LLP Welcomes New Attorneys to Dallas and New York Offices

May 5, 2025

Zelle LLP is pleased to announce the addition of four talented attorneys to our Dallas and New York offices.

Dallas Office

Scott Keffer, Associate

Scott represents clients, including many of the world's largest insurance companies, through all stages of litigation, focusing on first-party coverage disputes. His practice areas include bad faith and extra-contractual liability, breach of contract, and property insurance.

Hannah Motsenbocker, Senior Associate

Hannah represents major insurers in complex first-party property insurance disputes nationwide. Her practice includes advising on property damage from weather events, builder's risk issues, business interruption, and bad faith claims.

New York Office

Shelby Ross, Associate

Shelby focuses on representing global insurance companies in various insurance-related matters, emphasizing first-party coverage disputes. She provides thorough analysis on complex coverage issues across multiple jurisdictions.

Lisa Burns, Associate

Lisa represents global insurance companies in all litigation stages concerning first-party property insurance claims. Her practice focuses on analyzing complex coverage issues.
