

Tom Papa Admitted to Texas Bar

October 2, 2025

Tom Papa, an English solicitor who has been in Zelle LLP's London office since 2021, is now licensed in Texas, and working in the firm's Dallas office. Tom represents global insurance companies in insurance coverage and defense matters in connection with property, energy, construction, and professional negligence claims. He also has experience in liability coverage matters and reinsurance.

Tom joins a group of seven Zelle attorneys who are qualified/licensed to practice law in multiple international jurisdictions. That group includes:

Jason Reeves (England & Wales and the United States/Texas)

José Umbert (England & Wales, Spain, and the United States/California)

Katharina Kraatz-Dunkel (England & Wales, Germany, and the United States/Massachusetts)

Tom Papa (England & Wales and the United States/Texas)

Qianwei Fu (China and the United States/California)

Fracia Njoroge (Kenya and the United States/Massachusetts and New York)

Alex Buri (Uganda and the United States/Wisconsin)

Established in 1988, Zelle LLP is an international boutique litigation firm representing clients in their most challenging disputes. With nine U.S.-based offices and an office in London, Zelle is focused on insurance-related matters, antitrust, and commercial litigation.
