

The Legal 500 Ranks Zelle Hofmann Among Top Antitrust Firms for the Second Consecutive Year

June 18, 2010

For the second consecutive year, The Legal 500, the world's largest legal referral guide, has ranked Zelle Hofmann as one of the top plaintiffs' antitrust/class action firms in the United States.

The Legal 500 U.S. Litigation guide notes that the firm "is a highly efficient, very modern litigation firm using cutting-edge information technology for mining the vast quantities of documentation, which allows rapid appraisal of potential matters".

The Legal 500 also recognized Zelle Hofmann's appointment as co-lead counsel in the Intel antitrust litigation and their work as court-appointed liaison counsel and chair of the Plaintiffs' Executive Committee in Montgomery Partners v. Microsoft, an indirect purchaser class action on behalf of an estimated thirteen million California consumers which resulted in a $1.1 billion settlement following allegations of monopoly behavior by the software giant.
