Steven Badger and Shannon OMalley Cited in Claims Journal: Restaurant Asks Court to Declare Coronavirus Shutdown Covered By Insurance Policy

March 17, 2020

Zelle partner Steven Badger was quoted in a Claims Journal article titled Restaurant Asks Court to Declare Coronavirus Shutdown Covered By Insurance Policy. The article also quotes from a recent white paper written by Zelle partner Shannon OMalley Commercial Property Insurance Coverage and Coronavirus that discusses the coverage questions expected to arise in coronavirus related property insurance claims.

The Claims Journal article concerns a lawsuit brought by a restaurant in the heart of the New Orleans asking a state judge to declare that its property insurance policy will provide business-interruption coverage if the restaurant is ordered to close by civil authorities in response to the coronavirus.
