Shannon OMalley Quoted on AARP Website: Insurance Coverage and the Coronavirus

April 8, 2020

Shannon OMalley, a partner in the Dallas office of Zelle, was quoted in an AARP website article titled AARP Answers: Your Insurance Coverage and the Coronavirus.

Business interruption coverage is typically tied to physical damage from a cause you are insured for, such as a fire or hurricane. Absent such damage, it can be difficult to press a claim, said OMalley, who has written an in-depth analysis of the coronavirus and property insurance. In addition, many business policies explicitly exclude claims arising from a virus or communicable disease.
