Jane Warring Joins the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel

August 14, 2025

Jane Warring, partner in Zelle's Atlanta office, has joined fellow Zelle attorney James Chin as a member of the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC). Membership in the FDCC is by peer nomination and is reserved for leaders in the civil defense, corporate legal, and insurance industries who have demonstrated exceptional skill, integrity, and dedication to their practice.

The FDCC serves as a dynamic network that connects top professionals across the legal and business community, fostering collaboration, thought leadership, and professional growth. Janes invitation to join this distinguished group reflects her outstanding contributions to the legal field and her commitment to excellence in client advocacy.
