

PRACTICE CONTACTS

- Jonathan R. MacBride
- Isabella K. Stankowski-Booker

Zelle is uniquely positioned to offer clients the full spectrum of legal services in the area of contingency insurance. Our attorneys, some of whom have in-house experience in the field, advise clients on complex coverage issues related to event cancellation, non-appearance, film/media production, prize indemnity, personal accident, and event liability. Because of our experience and reputation in complex insurance litigation, Zelle attorneys provide our contingency insurance clients with the highest quality of legal representation when a dispute develops. In addition, because our attorneys are at the forefront of insurance law, our clients frequently seek our advice to assist with the development of bespoke contingency wordings.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Advised insurance carrier on various liability issues arising from allegations of bodily injury during stage construction.

Counseled contingency insurer on coverage issues regarding curtailed trade show as a result of severe winter weather and loss of heat.

Provided insurance carrier with review and analysis of event cancellation/nonappearance policy and drafted proposed wording in the context of threatened government shutdown in the United States.

Assisted various contingency insurers with subrogation efforts against third parties.

Advised contingency insurer on recent trends in terrorism coverage for large events.

Counseled client on availability and extent of coverage for loss or damage incurred by insured online retailer of luxury fashion and jewelry.